Brief Write up about the programme:

The Department of Commerce and Management at Nagarjuna College of Management Studies organized an inspiring guest talk on the topic “Beyond the Classroom: Building Skills, Careers and Character in UG” on 16th September 2025 at the Seminar Hall.

The session was delivered by Ms. Suman Kumari C Mali, an accomplished educator, researcher, and founder of The Knowledge Hub. She addressed the students on the importance of equipping themselves with essential life skills, career-oriented competencies, and strong moral values during their undergraduate years.

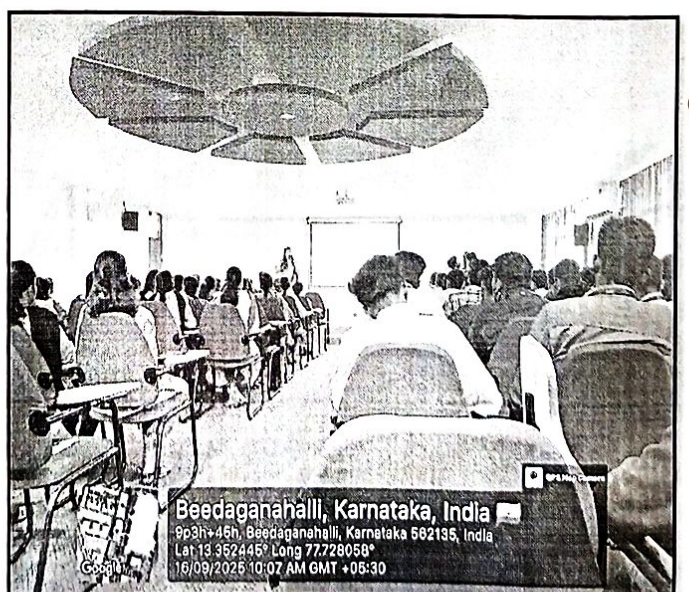

Ms. Suman Kumari C Mali emphasized that true education extends beyond academic achievements it must also shape character, nurture leadership qualities, and encourage adaptability in a rapidly changing world. She urged students to focus on communication, critical thinking, and problem-solving skills, while also cultivating integrity and responsibility.

The talk was highly interactive, with students engaging in discussions about their career aspirations and how they can make the most of their college years. The session concluded with key takeaways on lifelong learning, confidence building, and aligning personal goals with professional opportunities.

Learning outcomes:

1. Students understood the importance of balancing academics with skill development and character building.
2. Students gained insights into how career readiness can be achieved through active participation in curricular and extracurricular activities.
3. Students were motivated to work on self-improvement, personality development, and continuous learning.
4. Students developed awareness of the role of values and ethics in professional and personal success.
