Brief write-up about the Workshop:

The Department of Commerce and Management, Vanijya Vyasa – NCMS Commerce & Management Forum, in association with Codexa Technology Innovate LLP, organized a workshop titled “Corporate Etiquette Essentials for Future Leaders” on 13th October 2025 at 10:00 AM in the Seminar Hall. A total of 81 First Year BBA students actively participated in the session.

The event began with a welcome address by Dr. Kiran Kumar T N, Head of the Department (C&M), who introduced the theme of the workshop and highlighted the importance of professional etiquette in shaping future business leaders. He also formally welcomed the Resource Person, Dr. Ramesh B, CEO & Co-Founder, Codexa Technology Innovate LLP, and set the foundation for an engaging and insightful session.

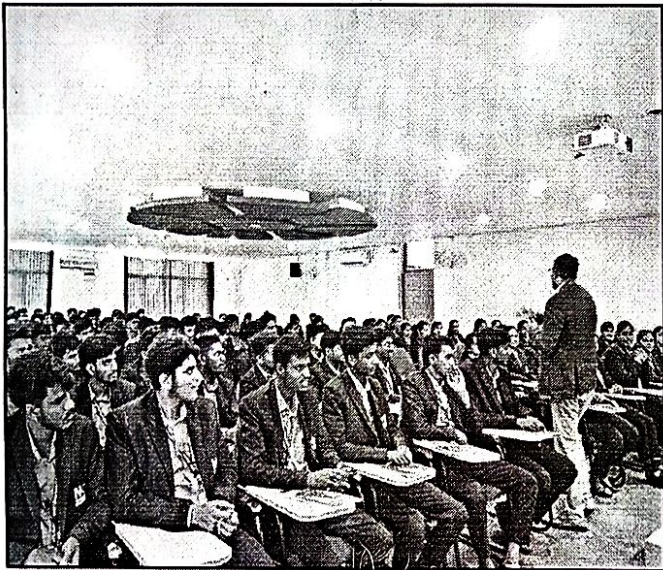

Dr. Ramesh B led an interactive and practical workshop focusing on corporate behavior, professional communication, business dining etiquette, grooming standards, and email etiquette. He engaged students with real-life corporate scenarios, role-play activities, and industry expectations, making the session highly informative and impactful.

Learning Outcomes:

After participating in the workshop, students were able to:

- Gain awareness of corporate etiquette and professional conduct expected in the industry.
- Demonstrate improved professional communication skills, including body language, email writing, and meeting etiquette.
- Understand the importance of personal grooming and presentation in building a strong professional image.
- Learn the basics of business etiquette, workplace behavior, and corporate culture.
