Brief Write up on the Programme:

On 09/04/2025, a guest talk titled "Smart Learning, Smart Career: A Roadmap for Commerce Students" was organized by the Department of Commerce and Management. The session was aimed at guiding final-year B.Com and BBA students on becoming successful both academically and professionally. The talk was delivered by CA M. Ram, a senior Chartered Accountant and a seasoned corporate mentor with over four decades of experience in the industry and academia.

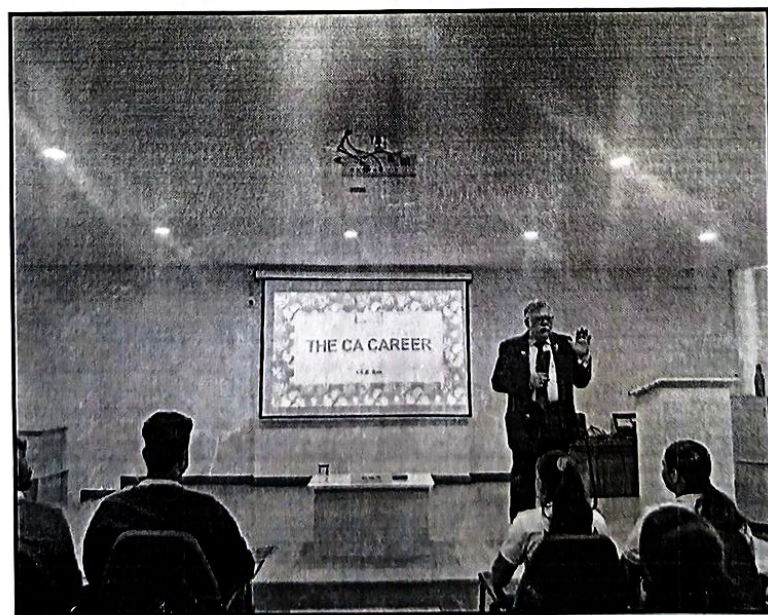

The discussion focused on three key areas: the characteristics of a successful student, the importance of personality development and soft skills, and an overview of the Chartered Accountancy (CA) course. The speaker emphasized the value of discipline, clarity of goals, and effective time management in shaping student success. He also stressed how soft skills such as communication, body language, and confidence can greatly influence career growth, especially in commerce and finance-related professions.

CA M. Ram gave an insightful walkthrough of the CA course structure, eligibility, challenges, and the immense career opportunities it offers. The session was interactive, practical, and filled with motivational anecdotes, which resonated well with the audience. The talk concluded with a vote of thanks and the presentation of a memento to the guest speaker.

Learning Outcome:

- Students gained practical strategies to become disciplined, focused, and self-motivated learners.
- Recognized the crucial role of personality traits and soft skills such as communication, confidence, and emotional intelligence in building a successful career.
- Acquired a foundational understanding of the CA course structure, entry requirements, and career pathways.
- Developed clarity about aligning academic choices with long-term career goals.
- Felt inspired to set realistic goals, overcome self-doubt, and adopt a growth mindset for both academic and professional success.
